DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 9/21/2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

The Applicant argues on page9 line1-9 that Miike et al. fails to teach that the first and last recording times are recorded for each still picture group. The Examiner respectfully disagrees. In figure 95 and column47 line 16-22, Miike et al discloses an input start and an input stop for the document (group of pictures). Further figure 95 displays two different images representing the input start and the input end, which indicates that there is more than one image in the document (group of pictures). On figure 110 user is able to search for documents produced between specific start time and end time.

Regarding 35 U.S.C. 101, the amendment does not overcome the rejection.

Regarding Provisional Double Patenting: since the claims are not allowed, the provisional double patenting remains stand.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982);

In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thoflington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321 (d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement. Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claim1, 4 and 5 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 1 of copending Application No. 10/192,652. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the subject matter claimed in the instant application has obvious difference with the copending application No. 10/192,652.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claim4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Functional descriptive material claimed in combination with an appropriate computer readable medium to enable to functionality to be realized is patent eligible subject matter if it is capable of producing a useful, concrete and tangible result when used in the computer. See cf. In re Warmerdam-data structure stored in a computer memory and In re Lowery, 32 USPQ2d 1031(F d.Cir.1994).

Claim7 also rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because it depends on claim4.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim1 and 4-8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Miike et al. (Patent Number US 5,787,414).

Regarding claim1, 4 and 5, Miike et al. (hereinafter Miike) anticipates a method for playing back a storage medium storing still picture group management information for managing still picture data and N still picture data as a still picture group, where N is an integer number equal to or larger than one, wherein said still picture group management information includes a first recording time at which the still picture data in said still picture group was recorded first and a last recording time at which the still picture data in said still picture group was recorded last (see figure 95 and column47 line 16-22), said method comprising the steps of: receiving an entry of a predetermined time (see figure 111 step 111; figure112 step 1121); comparing said predetermined time with said first and last recording times; and selectively playing back the still picture data belonging to said still picture group satisfying a condition in which said predetermined time is equal to or later than said first recording time and equal to or earlier than said last recording time (see figure111 step1112-1113 and column49 line59-column50 line1-15).

Regarding claim6, 7 and 8, Miike anticipates the method as claimed in claim 1, wherein said still picture data is non-movie still picture data, and wherein said still picture group management information is non-movie still picture group management information (see column12 line49-57 and column13 line 17-20).

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
